The Election.

On Tuesday next an election for President and Vice-President will be held in every State in the Union, or in such as are considered in.

It is the duty as well as the right of every man to vote for his choice in this race, and we hope to see every voter of this county approach the polls and exercise that right.

Go and vote early, and vote for Seymour and Blair.

Because it will bring peace and prosperity to our doors.

Because they are the friends of law and order.

Because they are opposed to the enfranchisement of the negro.

Because this government is Democratic and must be administered accordingly; or go to ruin.

Vote against Grant and Colfax because they represent the Radical party, and because.

The history of the radical party began in 1860, in a war which extremists, North and South, labored to precipitate.

In two millions of men, North and South, in arms, facing each other with the most destructive weapons of warfare of modern invention.

In the loss, North and South, of over five hundred thousand lives.

In an expenditure of over four billions of dollars for the North alone.

In an existing debt of over two billions and a half.

In the heaviest taxation ever imposed upon any people in any country, under which our labor is so groaning that it can everywhere come into competition even with taxed Germany, England or France.

In enormous high prices upon everything.

In an irredeemable currency of mere paper money, $300,000,000 in National banks, which is paying the owners of them from ten to thirty per cent per annum, and in $400,000,000 of greenbacks, not good enough even to pay duties to the custom house, or interest due the bondholders on their $250,000,000 of debt.

In a standing army of 90,000 men on paper, 50,000 men in fact, costing millions and millions of dollars, nearly $2,000,000 for every regiment.

In the hordes of Freedmen's Bureau office holders, paid for by the North to govern the negroes of the South, costing millions per annum.

In a tariff monopoly which everywhere makes the rich richer, and the poor poorer.

The Contest.

The great shock so long anticipated between the Republican and Democratic parties has taken place.

The Democratic party, though defeated, is not dishonored, for the principles enunciated by them are as true as heaven, and as lasting as time—the right of self government—and they have made one of the most heroic campaigns for the liberties of a people, on record. They have left nothing undone whereby they could overthrow the enemy. But alas for the South, they have been unsuccessful, and to-day the guns of the enemy are proclaiming in tones of thunder, the death knell of a republican form of government on this continent.

The National Curse (debt) will now be so riveted upon the people, before a other four years rolls around, that it will be impossible to cast it off, thereby en-slaving the North. The South also in the meantime, will be reduced to more abject penury, and slavery if possible. Military and civil laws will interfere with all branches of manufacture and commerce and the following of centralization and limited monarchy is neither impossible nor improbable.

But the Democratic party is again rallying around their banners and recovering from the shock of the great contest of the 13th. They are preparing to give battle upon the principles, that as long as there is life there is hope, and so the contest will be renewed in November. We have but a short time to prepare, but let not a moment be lost. Let men and means be properly furnished, and although the star of victory is now in eclipse, something may yet be done, as the race is not always won by the swift, nor is the victory always with the strong, and the question at issue is not only liberty or slavery, but life or death, to the Southern people.

For three long, weary years the people of the South have been struggling in the arms of adversity, hating that the people of the North would release them from the fetters of a military despotism at the present election, but in this they may be mistaken, and if they should be, no hope is left—but their dreams of Justice and Right will vanish, and they will vanish, and they will rapidly settle down to the howlers of wood, or drawers of water."

stern and honorable people, try to meet the issue as men, and not raise the cry of victory in the future, when we are shrouded in the clouds of overwhelming disaster.

May God avert this terrible catastrophe to a noble people.

Mr. Beck in addition to his brief comments thereon, said, "the man who proposed it was a knave or fool."

The cattle market is moderately brisk, with prices averaging from 4 1/2 to 5.

The sheep market is rather dull, with prices averaging from 3 to 3 1/2.

Lambs range from $3 to $4.50 per head.

The hog market is dull, with prices ranging from 7 to 7 1/2.

You may be too late. Be warned in time. Diseases like indigestion and dyspepsia are not to be trifled with. There is such a thing as being too late in these matters. Indigestion, or Scirrhus Cancer, or some other dangerous disease may ensue, when all restoratives, no matter how potent, would be inefficient. Do not delay then. When the symptoms of dyspepsia are first experienced resort at once to the great restorative medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and you will be safe.

But few disorders involve greater suffering, and if not in itself immediately dangerous, it is the source of many deadly maladies. Even if it did not tend to greater evil, the mental and physical misery it produces is alone a sufficient reason why no pains should be spared to prevent or cure it. In Louisiana on the face of the globe it is so completely domesticated as in our own where it is found in nearly every household. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, are universally conceded to be the sovereign remedy for this annoying disease, as they act directly upon the digestive organs, correct and tone the stomach, and give renewed vitality to the system. Acting delightfully upon the nerves and soothing the brain, renders them efficacious as a mental medicine, as well as a general tonic. If taken as a preventive, they will be found particularly well suited to the diseases arising from the unhealthy season of autumn, and their use will prevent the creeping, unpleasant sensation often complained of when the chills are stealing slowly upon the patient.

During the past week many farmers have visited Cynthia with their slouch hats turned up in front, indicating that they had corn to sell, looking earnestly for the whisky makers. The price of corn in the blue grass country of Kentucky, is ruled by the market in this city, and, therefore, corn raisers congregate in our place in large numbers. Here is where they find the round faced, good-natured distillers, with their pockets filled with blank checks, and they are considered the most approachable men in our country.

We have heard of but a few lots of corn being sold. The ideas of holders and purchasers, are, as yet, too far apart, and as long as that is the case, heavy sales cannot be made—notwithstanding corn buyers are plenty, and seem to be easy and unconcerned. They say that they will give the market price. A majority of our farmers expect and hope to sell their corn for nearly what they received last year, and we have heard of a few sales being made at from $3.50 per barrel, with the benefit of the rise until Christmas, and $4. None have been made public as yet.

We hear of many private sales, in which both parties are not permitted to divulge the price they gave or received. This condition of affairs cannot last long. The price of corn will be fixed upon soon.

Cook & Ashbrook purchased 100 acres of corn from Geo. Hawk, for which they paid $20 per acre. Mr. Hawk was to make ten barrels of corn for the same.

We hear of an increase of good feeling taking possession of our people on the corn question, and we believe that sales will shortly be made which will suit all parties.

Corn in Cincinnati, on Saturday last stood as follows:

The market for old corn was rather firmer, as there is not much coming forward, and some improvement was experienced in the demand. No advance was established, though higher prices were in many cases asked. No. 1 mixed sold at 95a96c., but there was not much to be had at these figures. One or two sales of white ear was made at 1a2c higher. Shelled and ear are quoted alike. The bulk of the receipts now are of new corn. Some inferior sold as low as 50c., but the sales were chiefly at 55a 60c., according to the condition it was in.

We understand that Shawhan & Megibben have abandoned the notion of building a distillery near this place, on account of the fact that the location was not suitable for water.

Messrs. Peck, Vanhook & Trimble have commenced building a large distillery just north of Cynthia; and we hear of another heavy firm are on the eve of putting up a large one.

Reynolds & Todd started their distillery last Saturday.

Capt. Atkins, of Scott, started up last week.

A Washington special says: The controversy between Secretary McCulloch and Commissioner Rollins on the whisky question has ended for the present by referring the matter to the Attorney General. Distillers will perceive the absurdity of the position of the Revenue Commissioner when it is made public. He agreed, as a concession, that liquor should be allowed to be returned to the still from which it came, but declared it unlawful to allow it to pass into the second still.

LOCAL MATTER.

All kinds of goods cheaper at the Stone Front than elsewhere.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of farm for sale, by Louis Payne. It is situated in Scott county, about half way between Newtown and Oxford, and is one of the best farms in the neighborhood. The improvements are good, and the sun never shone on better land.

INFORMATION WANTED.—I desire to learn the whereabouts of Mr. Eliza Johnson. He could learn something to his interest by addressing me at Cynthiana, Ky.

MARY HICKS.

W. S. Haviland, real estate agent in this city, informs us that he has sold the house and lot on the corner of Pleasant and Walnut streets, to Mr. Richer for $2,200.

At the sale of personal property of H. E. Shawhan, of this county, on Thursday last, mule colts sold for $39.50 per head, yearling mules at $60; fat cattle at $6.50 per hundred pounds; stock cattle calves at $17 per head; yearling cattle $43 per head; a lot of 2-year old heifers at $50 a head; brood mares for from $30 to $125. Every thing sold low.

H. T. Hemhold, the great patent medicine man, has given to the Democratic National Executive Committee $40,000 for the purpose of paying expenses of the Seymour canvass.

The Stone Front must have money. Goods are sold regardless of former prices.

Some six weeks ago our friend W. T. Ziler, sold 25 head of mules to a firm in Bourbon county, for $125 per head. They were No. 1 stock.

On last Saturday morning Jno. McCarthy, a division hand on the Kentucky Central Railroad was thrown from a hand car and his ankle broken and mashed up terribly. The car ran over him.

The store house of Mr. Livingston, at Livingston Station, was entered last Thursday night by some thieves, and some $200 worth of goods taken away. There must be a gang of thieves in that section, and they should be caught and put in jail.

In Pittsburg, Pa., on Friday, October 16, 1868, of typhoid fever, Mr. Henry Robitzer, aged 23 years, 8 months and 8 days.

G. B. Cheatham, will start his distillery on the first day of next month. It is situated at Oakland Mills, Nicholas county.

The bell at the Methodist church, in this city, fell from the steeple on Sunday morning last, to the first floor. No one was hurt.

The Stone Front is sacrificing goods for the money.

DEMOCRAT'S YOUNG AMERICA.—The juveniles are full of glee over the reception of an enlarged number of this popular little magazine. More pictures, more stories, more puzzles, more of everything that the children are in love with, is involved in this jubilation event which must have sent the Young America subscription list like a rocket. Certainly there is no other magazine like it for the young. Publication office, 473 Broadway, New York. Yearly $1.50.

A busy man is a locomotive and life a track. Every night he drives into the house, and stops. Every morning he is fired up anew, and away he goes, switching off in one direction and then in another. In this routine of business he forgets that the physical organization is of the most delicate kind. If a hard iron locomotive needs constant care, and to be well oiled up and rubbed off every day, how much more necessary is it that all men and women should use Plantation Bitters, which are the ne plus ultra of everything which is necessary to keep the system in a perfect tone of health.

Magnolia Water.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

Greenbacks buys goods very cheap at the Stone Front.

Programme of the Dedication of Battle Grove Cemetery.

The procession will form in town so as to move precisely at half past 10 o'clock, so as to commence the sermon at the ground at 11 o'clock. Which will be first:

After which a lunch will be served occupying an hour, when the sale of lots will take place.

We will give notice to those interested that after this sale on that day, the price of lots will be advanced twenty per cent.

Next Monday the people in and about Salem Church, will hold a meeting, and speeches will be made favoring the building of turnpikes. Let everybody attend.

The annual session of the Grand Division of Sons of Temperance met at Falmouth, October 21st, and after a very harmonious and interesting session adjourned on Thursday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

H. J. Perry, G. W. P., Maysville; J. S. Cox, A. W. A., Foster; J. W. Zimmerman, G. S.; Augusta; A. N. Myers, G. F., Augusta; Wm. Phelps, G. C. Minerva; F. K. Walters, G. S., Newport; F. E. Johns, P. G., Oddville.

On Thursday morning the State Temperance Alliance was organized, and the following officers elected to constitute the central of executive committees:

J. J. Bradford, President; Col. A. D. Smally, J. W. Zimmerman, H. J. Perry, A. J. Moore, Vice Presidents; Wm. Phelps, Treasurer.

All Temperance men, of what ever organization, are earnestly invited to co-operate with the State Alliance in the formation of branches in all parts of the State.

Information can be had and supplies furnished by application to any of the grand officers.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE.

Mr. Samuel O. Eckler, is about finishing an excellent residence for Geo. W. Taylor, of this county. It will contain ten rooms.

F. G. Veach sold 20 No. 4 yearling mules for $90 per head, to Joe Ewalt, of Bourbon. He purchased 23 head of mules same age and stripe, of Wm. Roberts, for which he paid $90, and disposed of them at a good profit.

NEPTUNES.—The Louisville Hotel was, last night, the scene of the happy nuptials of Col. M. S. Howe, U. S. A., and Mrs. Almida Price, the accomplished and beautiful daughter of Judge Edward Moore of Iberville Parish, La. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Messick, of Lexington, in a handsome and impressive manner, in the private parlors of Mr. Shelton, in the presence of a chosen company of friends and acquaintances. The distinguished couple left this evening for Harrodsburg Springs, at which point Col. Howe is Military Commandant.

The above notice we clip from the Louisville Journal of the 22nd. We had the pleasure of welcoming home the happy couple, and join with many friends our congratulations.

The Col. after many former deeds of valor, has succeeded in capturing, by peaceful means, a jewel that he proposes to cherish through life. May their future be as happy as the Col. is gallant, and the bride is beautiful.—Harrodsburg Signal.

Jno. G. Craddock, Esq., editor of the Paris Kentuckian, has just arrived from a buffalo hunt in the State of Kansas. He reported himself at the "News" office last Tuesday morning. This editor was unfortunate enough to fall in with a railroad excursion party to the West, and they held him as a prisoner during the entire trip. We don't blame him for being captured by such people. We expect to hear a report of his trip.

Whisky is whisky, and corn is corn, at any rate, one would think so, to hear the farmers and distillers of the vicinity talk. The distillers want the corn for $3.50 per barrel, and the farmers want 4 and $5. Whisky commands high figures at this time, and the farmer thinks that they should receive corresponding rates for their corn.

The beautiful features of reconstruction are being developed in Louisiana, just now. Negroes are permitted to go, unmolested, to the homes of white citizens, destroy them and their families, and then burn down their houses. Such is our information from Bernard Parish, below New Orleans. This is a business which will certainly create trouble of a serious nature, unless checked.

A gentleman from the Leesburg precinct called on us last week, and requested us to press the draft committee for that report, again. Since that time we have been informed that the committee consisted of three individuals, two of whom were merely nominal and had nothing to do with the business whatever; and now it remains for the third committee-man to say how he disposed of the funds placed in his hands. We hope to see a report soon.

The fall term of the Circuit Court, Judge O'Hara presiding, will open on Tuesday next. As that is the day for the general election, the court will, doubtless meet, organize and adjourn until Wednesday morning.

As an indication of the rise and prosperity of Cynthiana, the owner of one of our drug stores had three offers to sell out, inside of three days. So we go.

H. Magee & Son have removed their grocery store to their new house on Pike street, where they will be pleased to see their friends and the public generally.

Mr. Dill has commenced a new building on Walnut street for Jno. Warnock. It is to be a dwelling.

The cars run over and killed two fat cattle, last Monday, just above town, on the road leading to Lair's Mills.

At the sale recently made by Mrs. Menerva Shawhan, A. W. Lydick, auctioneer, cows sold for from 40 to $101; 2-year old steers weighing about 1100 pounds, for $65; yearling steers $43; 2-year old heifers 40 to $60; sucking calves $35; yearling (common) mules $72; sheep $3.50.

COOPERAGE.—We recently visited the very extensive Tub Barrel and Keg works of The DeBus Tub and Cooperage Company, of Cincinnati, where all kinds of cooperage from the smallest size lead keg to the largest tub or beer cask is made, and found employed nearly 100 hands in the various branches. The above concern contract for large or small quantities of barrels and for the erection of all tubs that are needed in the distillery business; and deliver same to parties in all parts of the country, having frequently been settling same in five or six States. They also have facilities for the manufacture of twelve to fifteen hundred Bourbon barrels per week, and we have understood that the same give the highest satisfaction to the many parties using them, being very heavily charred, heavy timber and tight. Many of our prominent distillers have used their barrels and will contract to have nearly all their whisky placed in them this season. They are now engaged in putting up seven or eight new distilleries in Kentucky, with their tubs. The concern employs a capital of over $120,000 including real estate, in the prosecution of their large and increasing business. Parties interested should call and see, as the place well pays for visiting.
